Codes of Conduct :- The Club has adopted Codes of Conduct for the Club and its Paddlers, Junior Paddlers, Parents, Volunteers, Coaches and Officials. These are published on our web site, and stored within the 'Health and Safety' and 'Clubmark' files in the boathouse. Members are expected to acquaint themselves with the relevant codes and abide by them.

Child Protection :- The club has a 'Child and Vulnerable Adults' Protection Policy which all members should acquaint themselves with and abide by. The policy is published on the Club notice boards as well as the web site, 'Clubmark' and 'Health and Safety' Files.

Notes for Parents :- Supervision of club members off the water is limited. Members, including Junior members, must be responsible for the results of their own actions. Those who misbehave may be refused permission to join club events, or returned home early. If a child or vulnerable adult is left in the care of a club officer during a club session or trip then it is essential that a 'Young Persons' form, giving contact and medical details, is completed and handed to that club officer. The form will be retained for seven years.

Check your Application Form has been fully completed and then sign below. Indicate the membership fee (less any discount) you are enclosing and return it together with your application to: NCKC membership, Nene Whitewater Centre, Bedford Road, N'pton NN4 7AA
